APPLICATION FOR ADVERTISING IN THE SUMMIT TOWERS OBSERVER

Last updated February 5, 2017

To apply: Mail or hand in the completed application to the Observer mailbox in the Management Office (954.925-3337) with the payment made out to The Summit Towers Condominium Association, Inc. Ads cannot be run unless payment is already made.

Approval and final editing of all ads are the responsibility of the editors of the Summit Observer. Ads can be refused for any reason, including space limitations. The editors, the Summit Observer Committee and the Summit Towers Condominium Association, Inc. shall not be liable or responsible for mistakes of any type (inclusion or exclusion) made by any of the parties to this transaction, and you agree to indemnify, release and hold harmless the foregoing parties from any claims or damages arising out of the placement, or non-placement, of an ad. Ads left out for any reason can be made up in later issues.

All prices are subject to change. No refunds are available.

Present rates for placement of ads in the Summit Observer newsletter:

(Monthly ad price has not changed since January 1, 2016.)

- One placement of business card size ad is presently $60/issue (resident rate $50/issue)
- One placement of ¼ page is presently $120/issue (resident rate $100/issue)

A year's worth of ads (six consecutive issues) are available for the price of five if they are prepaid. For example, six prepaid consecutive ¼ page ads cost $600 for a non-resident.

Starting with the March/April 2017 issue, we plan to publish six issues a year:

January/February, March/April, May/June, July/August, September/October, November/December

Free Options for Registered Residents:

Residents can have free short classified notes posted in the mailrooms. These notices must be submitted for review using a form available in the office. Owners can also put free classified ads online at fsrsouth.fsconnect.com/summittowers. See office about both options and applicable rules.
