FLORIDA NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

ARTICLE I

IDENTITY

The following By-Laws shall govern the operation of the Condominium created by the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

The Association whose name appears at the end of this instrument is a Florida Corporation not for profit, organized and existing under the laws of the State of Florida for the purpose of administering (but not exclusively unless so provided in the Association's Articles of Incorporation) the Condominium created by the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

Section 1. The office of the Association shall be at the Condominium property or at such other place as may be subsequently designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. The Seal of the Corporation shall bear the name of the Corporation, the word "Florida", the words "Corporation not for profit", and the year of incorporation.

Section 3. As used herein, the word "Corporation" shall be the equivalent of "Association", as defined in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached. All other words, as used herein, shall have the same definitions as attributed to them in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached. As used herein and in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached and the other Exhibits to said Declaration of Condominium, the terms "Board of Directors" and "Board of Administration" are synonymous.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING PROVISIONS

Section 1. Membership in the Association shall be limited to owners of the Condominium units in the Condominium wherein this Corporation has been designated the Association to operate and administer said Condominium by virtue of the Declaration of Condominium of said Condominium. Transfer of unit ownership, either voluntary or by operation of law, shall terminate membership in the Association, and said membership is to become vested in the transferee. If unit ownership is vested in more than one person, then all of the persons so owning said unit shall be members eligible to hold office, attend meetings, etc., but, as hereinafter indicated, the vote of a unit shall be cast by the "voting member". If unit ownership is vested in a Corporation, said Corporation may designate an individual officer or employee of the Corporation as its "voting member".

Any application for the transfer of membership or for a conveyance of an interest in, or to encumber or lease a Condominium parcel, where the approval of the Association is required, as set forth in these By-Laws and the Declaration of Condominium to which they are attached, shall be accompanied by an application fee in an amount to be set by the Board of Directors to cover the cost of contacting the references given by the applicant, and such other costs of investigation that may be incurred.

Section 2. Voting.

(a) The owner(s) of each Condominium unit shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Condominium unit owned. If a Condominium unit owner owns more than one (1) unit, he shall be entitled to vote for each unit owned. The vote of a Condominium unit is not divisible.

(b) A majority of the members' votes at a duly constituted meeting pursuant to Section 3, Article II, of these By-Laws shall decide any question unless the Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation of the Association provide otherwise, in which event the voting percentage required in the said Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws or Articles of Incorporation shall control.

Section 3. Quorum. Unless otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of a majority of the members' total votes shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and signed by the person entitled to vote (as set forth below in Section 5) and shall be filed with the Secretary prior to the meeting in which they are to be used and shall be valid only for the particular meeting designated therein. Where a unit is owned jointly by a husband and wife, and if they have not designated one of them as a voting member, a proxy must be signed by both husband and wife where a third person is designated. Proxies shall only be effective for the specific meeting for which originally given and any lawfully adjourned meeting thereof. In no event shall any proxy be valid for a period longer than ninety (90) days after the date of the first meeting for which the proxy was given.

Section 5. Designation of Voting Member. If a Condominium unit is owned by one person, his right to vote shall be established by the recorded title to the unit. If a Condominium unit is owned by more than one (1) person, the person entitled to cast the vote for the unit shall be designated in a Certificate, signed by all of the recorded owners of the unit and filed with the Secretary of the Association. If a Condominium unit is owned by a Corporation, the officer or employee thereof entitled to cast the vote of the unit for the Corporation shall be designated in a Certificate for this purpose signed by the President or Vice-President, attested to by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Corporation, and filed with the Secretary of the Association. The person designated in such Certificate who is entitled to cast the vote for a unit shall be known as the "voting member". If such a Certificate is not on file with the Secretary of the Association for a unit owned by more than one person or by a Corporation, the vote of the unit concerned shall not be considered in determining the requirement for a quorum, or for any purpose requiring the approval of a person entitled to cast the vote for the unit, except if said unit is owned by a husband and wife. Such Certificates shall be valid until revoked or until superseded by a subsequent Certificate or until a change in the ownership of the unit concerned takes place. If a Condominium unit is owned jointly by a husband and wife, the following three provisions are applicable thereto:-

- (a) They may, but they shall not be required to, designate a voting member.
- (b) If they do not designate a voting member, and if both are present at a meeting and are unable to concur in their decision upon any subject requiring a vote, they shall lose their right to vote on that subject at that meeting. (As previously provided, the vote of a unit is not divisible.)
- (c) Where they do not designate a voting member and only one is present at a meeting, the person present may cast the unit vote just as though he or she owned the unit individually and without establishing the concurrence of the absent person.

The Board of Directors is only required to render a statement for each calendar year no later than sixty (60) days after the end of the year, and said statement shall be made available to the members of the Association and during this time the Board of Directors shall cause a continual internal audit of accounts of the Association to be performed; however, no independent or external audit by an accountant or other parties is required during such time as the Developer has the right to elect the majority of the Board of Directors. The foregoing report shall be prepared in accordance with the requirements of F.S. 718.111(13).

ARTICLE VII

ADDITIONS OR ALTERATIONS

There shall be no additions or alterations to the common elements or limited common elements of the Condominium which this Association operates and maintains except as specifically provided for in said Condominium's Declaration of Condominium.

The foregoing is subject to the paramount provisions of Article XVII of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached as Exhibit No. 2.

ARTICLE VIII

COMPLIANCE AND DEFAULT

Section 1. Violations. In the event of a violation (other than the non-payment of an assessment) by the unit owner in any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, of these By-Laws, or of the applicable portions of the Condominium Act, the Association, by direction of its Board of Directors, may notify the unit owner by written notice of said breach, transmitted by mail, and if such violation shall continue for a period of thirty (30) days from date of the notice, the Association, through its Board of Directors, shall have the right to treat such violation as an intentional and inexcusable and material breach of the Declaration, of the By-Laws, or of the pertinent provisions of the Condominium Act, and the Association may then, at its option, have the following elections:-

(a) An action to recover for its damage on behalf of the Association or on behalf of the other unit owners.

(b) An action to enforce performance on the part of the unit owner; or

(c) An action for such equitable relief as may be necessary under the circumstances, including injunctive relief.

Upon a finding by the Court that the violation complained of is willful and deliberate, the unit owner so violating shall reimburse the Association for reasonable attorney's fees incurred by it in bringing such action. Failure on the part of the Association to maintain such action at law or in equity within thirty (30) days from date of a written request, signed by a unit owner, sent to the Board of Directors, shall authorize any unit owner to bring an action in equity or suit at law on account of the violation in the manner provided for in the Condominium Act. Any violations which are deemed by the Board of Directors to be a hazard to public health may be corrected immediately as an emergency matter by the Association and the cost thereof shall be charged to the unit owner as a specific item, which shall be a lien against said unit with the same force and effect as if the charge were a part of the common expenses.

Section 2. Negligence or Carelessness of Unit Owner, Etc. All unit owners shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness or by that of any member of his family, or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. Such liability shall include any increase in insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of any unit or its appurtenances. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be construed so as to modify any waiver by insurance company of rights of subrogation. The expense for any maintenance, repair or replacement required, as provided in this Section, shall be charged to said unit owner as a specific item, which shall be a lien against said unit with the same force and effect as if the charge were a part of the common expenses.

Section 3. Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by a unit owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees, including costs and reasonable attorney's fees on appeal, as may be determined by the Court.

Section 4. No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or of a unit owner to enforce any right, provision, covenant or condition which may be granted by the Condominium documents, shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association or unit owner to enforce such right, provision, covenant or condition of the future.

Section 5. Election of Remedies. All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or unit owner, pursuant to any terms, provisions, covenants or conditions of the Condominium documents, shall be deemed to be cumulative and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies, nor shall it preclude the party thus exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies or privileges as may be granted to such other party by Condominium documents or at law or in equity.

ARTICLE IX

ACQUISITION OF UNITS

Section 1. Voluntary Sale or Transfer. Upon receipt of a unit owner's written notice of intention to sell or lease, as described in Article XI of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, the Board of Directors shall have full power and authority to consent to the transaction, as specified in said Notice, or object to same for good cause, or to designate a person other than the Association as designee, pursuant to the provisions of said Article XI without having to obtain the consent of the membership thereto. The Board of Directors shall have the further right to designate the Association as being "willing to purchase, lease or rent" upon the proposed terms, upon adoption of a resolution by the Board of Directors recommending such purchase or leasing to the membership, but notwithstanding the adoption of such resolution and such designation by the Board of Directors, the Association shall not be bound and shall not so purchase or lease except upon the authorization and approval of the affirmative vote of voting members casting not less than sixty (60%) percent of the total votes of the members present at any regular or special meeting of the members wherein said matter is voted upon. The provisions of Article XI of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached shall supersede the provisions herein relative thereto.

Section 2. Acquisition on Foreclosure. At any foreclosure sale of a unit, the Board of Directors may, with the authorization and approval by the affirmative vote of voting members casting not less than sixty (60%) percent of the total votes of the members present at any regular or special meeting of the members wherein said matter is voted upon, acquire in the name of the Association, or its designee, a Condominium parcel being foreclosed. The term "foreclosure", as used in this Section, shall mean and include any foreclosure of any lien, excluding the Association's lien for assessments. The power of the Board of Directors to acquire a Condominium parcel at any foreclosure sale shall never be interpreted as any requirement or obligation on the part of the said Board of Directors or of the Association to do so at any foreclosure sale, the provisions hereof being permissive in nature and for the purpose of setting forth the power in the Board of Directors to do so should the requisite approval of the voting members be obtained. The Board of Directors shall not be required to obtain the approval of lot owners at the foreclosure sale of a unit due to the foreclosure of the Association's lien for assessments under the provisions of Article X of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached, notwithstanding the sum the Board of Directors determines to bid at such foreclosure sale.

ARTICLE X

AMENDMENTS TO THE BY-LAWS

The By-Laws may be altered, amended or added to at any duly called meeting of the unit owners, provided:-

(1) Notice of the meeting shall contain a statement of the proposed Amendment.

(2) If the Amendment has received the unanimous approval of the full Board of Directors, then it shall be approved upon the affirmative vote of the voting members casting a majority of the total votes of the members of the Association.

(3) If the Amendment has not been approved by the unanimous vote of the Board of Directors, then the Amendment shall be approved by the affirmative vote of the voting members casting not less than three-fourths (3/4ths) of the total votes of the members of the Association; and,

(4) Said Amendment shall be recorded and certified as required by the Condominium Act.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing, these By-Laws may only be amended with the written approval when required of the parties specified in Article VIII of the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached.

ARTICLE XI

NOTICES

Whatever notices are required to be sent hereunder shall be delivered or sent in accordance with the applicable provisions for notices as set forth in the Declaration of Condominium to which these By-Laws are attached and, where applicable, in accordance with F.S. 718 et seq.

ARTICLE XII

The Association shall indemnify every Director and every Officer, his heirs, executors and administrators, against all loss, cost and expense reasonably incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a Director or Officer of the Association, including reasonable counsel fees to be approved by the Association, except as to matters wherein he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding, to be liable for or guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct. ARTICLE XIV

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Notwithstanding the duty of the Association to maintain and repair parts of the Condominium property and where applicable the recreation facilities, the Association shall not be liable for injury or damage caused by a latent condition in the property, nor for injury or damage caused by the elements or by other owners or persons.
