A CONDO CAN BE MEDIOCRE OR GREAT . . . ITS YOUR DECISION!

Cooperation of unit owners can make a big difference.

By Irv Rosenkranz and Stu Bart

Once again its that time of year when "frost is on the pumpkin" and our Northern brothers and sisters are hastily packing to return to the good ole Summit and renew friendships, make new friends and bask in the sun by day and dine out at night. Not a bad life!

Lots of hard work has been accomplished during the hot summer months by our Board and in-house staff. The ceiling tiles in the corridors have been replaced, the housekeepers kept the public areas clean and shiny. The landscaping surrounding our buildings and the pool deck is tops in the area.

Nothing is forever. Joe Matukonis, our previous manager decided to retire and our Board hired Albert Reibel to manage our property. You will be pleased with Al, he is easy to approach, friendly and understanding of unit owners needs. His resume indicates lots of experience in Condo management and is most impressive. He strongly advocates a more sophisticated security system for the safety of the unit owners. Not a bad idea especially in these times of crazies attacking innocent people indiscriminately.

Now, that a new season is approaching, cooperation of every unit owner will further enhance our beautiful Summit. A few suggestions:

- 1) Don't downgrade the Summit! The Summit is the showplace of Hollywood and the demand for apartments exceeds the supply by far. Ask Ted Aronsky, the real estate agent whose office is on the third floor, South building. Bad mouthing the Summit can only lower the value of our property.
- 2) Be friendly! Greet your neighbors with a smile and friendly greetings in the elevators and public areas. A friendly warm atmosphere breeds happiness to you and everyone.
- 3) Dress appropriately! Improper attire in elevators, halls and lobbys creates a poor impression and downgrades dignity and standards of neatness. Remember the saying, "When in Rome, do as the Romans do". 'Nuff said about this subject. Let your conscience be your guide. Please, be properly clothed walking to or from the gymnasium, the pool deck and the mail rooms.

4) Attend meetings! Although we print "Highlights of Board Meetings" in every issue of the Observer, it is not the same as attending these important meetings. Watch the Board of Directors in action. Listen to the committee reports and you will understand the time and effort Board members devote for the good and welfare of Summit residents. Anyone with good qualifications can become a candidate for the Board of Directors. A much better activity than sitting idly on the pool deck discussing the merits of your favorite restaurant that serves dinners with two vegetables instead of one vegetable. Get your information direct from the "horse's mouth" instead of some ill informed individual trying to impress a gullible audience with "inside information".

5) Please! - Please! - Please! Obey the 10 mile an hour rule when driving in all garage levels. There have been many complaints of reckless driving in all areas of the garage and we are worried that some day a serious accident will occur. There are lots of people walking in the garage area to their cars, garage elevators to the tennis courts, purchase newspapers on the promenade or head for the beach. People walk between cars directly into traffic lanes and drivers cannot apply their brakes in time to avoid hitting pedestrians if they are driving at an excessive rate of speed. Alas, we senior citizens (and junior-seniors) do not have the agility we have had twenty years ago. So, please do not shorten our remaining few years with reckless driving. Nuff said on the subject.

We are looking forward to a great winter season at the Summit. The basic ingredients for a banner year requires just a bit more cooperation from every unit owner or temporary resident. Be pleasant to each other - and remember "happiness aids digestion". May health and happiness be your constant companion and enjoy life at our beautiful Summit.

WELCOME "HOME!"

One of the nicest thing about this time of the year is watching the flow of returning unit owners to the Summit from their Northern homes. I hope everyone will find their apartments in top shape condition and quickly adjust to their normal everyday routines. I also enjoy watching the hugging and kissing when the new arrivals meet their old friends and neighbors.

In the last issue of The Observer, I wrote, "... several Board members and I will "hold the fort" all summer long overseeing that every aspect of maintenance will not be neglected". I also wrote, "... "we do have a well trained and loyal staff who are always available for any emergencies". Nature was good to us this past summer, hurricanes never struck us but we did have several low grade tropical storms which caused some minor damage to our buildings.

We did not sit idly by last summer, we accomplished quite a bit of upscale maintenance plus enhancement projects to our buildings. Here are some of them:

- 1.) New carpets freshened up both lounges. The old carpets were shabby and frayed, unbecfitting for a class condo as ours.
- 2.) We are at present painting and waterproofing the west side of both buildings. There were reports of water seeping in some of the West apartments.
- 3.) We are installing two systems of Domestic Pumps to insure that sufficient water is being pumped up to the upper floors.
- 4.) We have scheduled to modernize eight elevators

(four in each building) starting in January. This project will take about eight months because only one elevator at a time will be shut down before work starts on another.

- 5.) We have installed automatic sliding doors in front of both towers plus a sliding door entering the restaurant.
- 6.) New Christmas lights will replace the old system in front of the building.
- 7.) Beautiful flowers were added at the entrance of the Summit.
- 8.) A four station weight machine (Paramount) was installed in the gym for the benefit of the serious seekers of the body beautiful.
- 9.) All ceiling tiles were replaced in all corridors of both buildings by our in-house maintenance staff.
- 10.) Two new channels will become available on your TV starting December 1, 2001. HBO channel 16 and Cinemax channel 18. Enjoy! Enjoy!

So you see, we were not asleep all summer. There are several more projects on the drawing board which we will tell you about after the Board's approval.

I wish everyone a happy and healthy season, and rest assured, the security at the Summit will be tightened up as much as possible with additional safety measures. The safety of all Summit residents is our number one concern.

GOD BLESS AMERICA!

A motion was made to accept the offer to discount the association's judgement from $15,204.36 to $6,000. as proposed by the association foreclosure counsel: in event that another offer is received as favorable (or better) by 5 p.m. 5/9/01 we will give that due consideration. Motion carried unanimously.

President Al Finkelstein proposed adding two new channels - HBO and Cinemax for an additional charge of $4.42 per unit monthly.

Both proposals were accepted unanimously.

Wednesday, August 22, 2001

Secretary's Report: Rosalind Katz read the formal resignation of Joe Matukonis in which he stated he was leaving effective Tuesday, July 17th to retire with pleasant memories of the Summit.

President Al Finkelstein introduced Mr. Quarles who analyzed three bids to modernize our elevators. He recommended Otis Elevator whose bid was $545,000. Atlantic Elevator declined to bid and ThyssenKrupp's bid was $880,000. After discussion, a motion was made to accept Otis Elevator. Motion carried.

Betty Thornton reported on landscaping that lack of water during the recent drought has damaged pool deck plantings. Landscapers are replacing some plants with Crotons which are more hardy to winds and weather.

Manager's Report: Al Reibel recommended several additional measures to tighten security for the safety of all residents. All Summit residents will be shortly notified about progress which will include photographing all residents and employees.

WILL THE NEW DIPLOMAT COMPLEX ENHANCE THE OCEANFRONT CONDOS?

By Stu Bart

I had lunch with Mayor Mara Giulanti last week to discuss the Super Gala we are planning to be held at the New Diplomat Hotel in late February for the benefit of Ben-Gurion University of the Negev and to ask her to be the honored guest. It seemed appropriate in view of her efforts to bring this amazing complex to Hollywood. She accepted. I could not pass up this opportunity to ask her what she thought this world class hotel and convention center will do for the Condo owners nestling on both sides of the tallest structure in Broward.

Understandably the New Diplomat is the largest complex to come to Hollywood, a worthy successor to the Diplomat that made national news with its location, facilities and its incomparable list of world class entertainment. This new complex is filled with staggering statistics: 1,000 deluxe guest rooms, including 100 suites, over 200,000 square feet of convention space, the "Diplomat Landing", 50,000 square feet featuring upscale shopping and entertainment, a marina that can accommodate yachts up to 125 feet, a full service European Spa with 30,000 square feet that contain 17 treatment rooms offering every exotic treatment known worldwide. All this is certain to appeal to Americans across the country and travelers across the globe.

So, what has all this to do with us who enjoy the same ocean, the same atmosphere, the same convenience right here at the Summit? Plenty! When everything is put back in place and the doors are open for business there will be a different look on South Ocean Drive, a look that will reflect on every building flanking this world class facility. The demand for apartments will rise even higher. Of the 1,000 employees there will be a great number of executives and junior execs looking for a walk to work location. When the demand is greater than the supply costs have only one way to go... UP!

Just a couple of months to O-day. We think we are in for a treat... for a change. I can't wait to again see those six lanes cleared and a normal traffic pattern going south. It was a long, long shlep. HAPPY MOTORING!

PLEASE USE YOUR KEY CARDS
TO ENTER
BOTH BUILDINGS!

AN INTERVIEW WITH AL REIBEL, OUR MANAGER

Observer: Let me congratulate you upon being selected as our property manager. I have heard nice things about you and I know all residents would like to know something about your background. Would you mind answering a few questions about your managerial experience?

Mr. Reibel: I would be delighted to answer your questions. By the way, please tell the Summit unit owners to feel free to visit me at the condo office so we may get acquainted.

Observer: Tell us something about your background, experience, and a bit of your qualifications.

Mr. Reibel: I have been a South Florida resident since 1946. I have been in the building business since 1947 and obtained a General Contractor's license in 1948 for Dade County, Palm Beach and Broward County.

Observer: Are you implying that being a builder and developer enabled you to acquire a vast amount of knowledge of building construction in all its phases plus knowing all the legal rules and regulations pertaining to permits where necessary and what type of landscaping, trees and plants, are best suited to survive in a tropical climate with our buildings situated so close to the ocean?

Mr. Reibel: An arsenal of knowledge and experience are indispensable tools for an experienced manager.

Observer: Can you tell us about some of the properties you were associated with?

Mr. Reibel: Town and Lake Estate in Hialeah; Mariners Bay, North Miami; The Forum and Rolling Green Condominiums, both in North Miami Beach and Royal Palm Beach Colony in Palm Beach to name a few Observer: One more question. Tell us something about your family.

Mr. Reibel: My beautiful wife and I recently celebrated our 51st wedding anniversary. We are happily married and have 3 children and 7 grandchildren.

Observer: Thank you very much for the interview. We extend our best wishes for a long association with us at the Summit.

IN MEMORIUM

Anne Finkelstein passed away on July 10, 2001, a true woman of valor. Her family, her aide and her R.N. nurse were at her bedside. Anne was a giving person who gave of herself so others would be more comfortable. The family thanks all the people who sent contributions in her memory to the charities she supported. Anne was a special person who will be missed by all who were fortunate to have known her.

FROM ANN LANDERS COLUMN

(Submitted by someone who did not leave a name.)

This list should be required reading for everyone over 60. It is chock full of wisdom and caring.

1. When my children tell me I should no longer drive, I will believe them and quit, because I know they love me.
2. When it becomes apparent that I need extra help, I will accept it from outsiders because my children cannot do everything. They have other obligations beyond my daily care.
3. It is up to me to make my life fulfilling. It is not my children's responsibility. I must stay active and learn to entertain myself so I do not become a burden to them.
4. If my children tell me I am becoming confused and that it is no longer safe for me to be alone, I will believe them and not become defensive.
5. If I am not able to get along with my children, I will seek counseling so we can learn to manage the changes in my life together.
6. I will get my legal affairs in order and trust the advice of professionals so there will be no problems about money or property down the road.
7. I will not complain about feeling poorly. My children cannot fix my health, and such complaints are emotionally draining for them to hear.
8. My children are not my indentured servants. I will remember to thank them for everything they do for me, and I will do loving things in return.
9. I will avoid making my children feel guilty. Age is no excuse for insults and manipulative behavior.
10. For as long as I can, I will take good care of myself physically, dress well and carry myself with dignity. Nothing saddens a child more than to witness parents who give up on how they present themselves.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor:

The Summit is a first class building with an aura of cleanliness and a pristine look. We must always look that way. Our staff of maintenance and housekeepers do their job well.

However, we have a small amount of slobes that live in our buildings that are the cause of the debris on the floors of our elevators and garage areas. The slobes should be reported to the condo office and if we get a high enough amount of reports on a slob in particular, that slob should be made to pay a clean-up fee. This could be a way to discourage the slobes from dirtying up our homes. I consider the elevator and garage an extended part of my home.

Jack Arias

You have a good suggestion, Jack. However, to bring these "slobes" to justice is an almost impossible task. This problem has been brought to the attention of the Board many times. Any suggestions from unit owners how to apprehend these "slobes?" The manager and Board would like to hear from you.

"Speak softly" and gently and the "big stick" we "carry" must be one of caring and true friendship for one another.

In these perilous and uncertain times, the loving that lies within us should flourish and nurture one another as never before.

We are a 'family' at The Summit and together we can personally protect and promote the human values we all cherish so deeply.

TED TALK . . .
The Real Estate Corner

In last month's edition of the Observer, I spoke about two units at the Summit that were for sale. These units were sold extremely quickly at prices exceeding the 20-25% increase I projected. Just this week, other choice units have become available and these will be sold shortly due to a current waiting list and brokers' participation.

I want to thank all of you for all your good wishes concerning my new column. It has always been and will continue to be my pleasure to serve you as your realtor and friend.

Just a reminder - my office is located on the third floor of the South Tower. My telephone number is (954) 925-6500, extension #24. If any unit owner would like to discuss the value of his or her unit or any matter pertaining to other condominiums in the area, please feel free to contact my staff or me. We continue to have an open door policy - come in and chat!

I wish you all a great summer - especially a healthy one.

LIFE BEFORE THE COMPUTER

Application was for employment
 A program was a TV show
 A cursor used profanity
 A keyboard was a piano!

Memory was something that you lost with age
 A CD was a bank account
 And if you had a 3 1/2 inch floppy
 You hoped nobody found out!

Compress was something you did to garbage
 Not something you did to a file
 And if you unzipped anything in public
 You'd be jail for a while!

Log on was adding wood to a fire
 Hard drive was a long trip on the road
 A mouse pad was where a mouse lived
 And a backup happened to your commode!

Cu - you did with a pocket knife
 Paste you did with glue
 A web was a spider's home
 And a virus was the flue!

I guess I'll stick to my pad and paper
 And the memory in my head
 I hear nobody's been killed in a computer crash
 But when it happens they wish they were dead!

NEED SOME HELP MAINTAINING YOUR APARTMENTS?

Look no further! The Summit is blessed with an experienced staff of maintenance men and housekeepers who have amassed an unusual amount of skill in repairing and adjusting anything from electrical appliances, cabinets, flooring, shelving, painting, etc., etc., while working at the Summit for many years. They are skillful and know every nook and cranny of both our buildings. They, and our housekeepers are available (after working hours and week-ends only) if you need some repairs or house cleaning in your apartments. All you need do is phone the Condo office 925-3337 and request the service of one of our maintenance men or housekeepers, they will contact you for appointments.

Please remember, this is only an accommodation for the convenience of Summit residents. The Summit assumes no responsibility, financial arrangement is strictly between you and the maintenance men or housekeepers. We can only attest for their reliability and honesty.

Hiring inside help will eliminate a "stranger" from lurking in our buildings. We can't be too careful these days by permitting "crazies" to enter our premises.

JOB FINDING DIFFICULTIES

My first job was working in an orange juice factory, but I got canned . . . couldn't concentrate.

Then I worked in the woods as a lumberjack, but I just couldn't hack it, so they gave me the axe.

After that I tried to be a tailor, but I just wasn't suited for it ... mainly because it was a so-so-job.

Next I tried working in a muffler factory but that was too exhausting.

Then I tried to be a chef - figured it would add a little spice to my life but I just didn't have the thyme.

I attempted to be a deli worker, but any way I sliced it, I couldn't cut the mustard.

My best job was being a musician, but eventually I found I wasn't noteworthy.

I studied a long time to become a doctor, but I didn't have any patience.

Next was a job in a shoe factory, I tried but just didn't fit in.

I became a professional fisherman, but discovered that I couldn't live on my net income.

I got a good job working for a pool maintenance company, but the work was too draining.

Then I got a job in a workout center, but they said I wasn't fit for the job.

After years of trying to find steady work, I finally got a job as a historian until I realized there was no future in it.

My last job was working at Starbucks, but I had to quit because it was always the same old grind.

So I retired at the Summit, apt. N702 and I found I am perfect for the job! - Sam Fox.

A LETTER TO NORM EDELMAN AND HARMON BERGER

October 23, 2001

Dear Norm and Harmon:

You are genuinely wonderful men to remind us to share in this way, of thanking all of the Condo employees. I am happy to contribute to this fund. Each and every employee of the Summit have been very friendly and helpful to me. It is most likely that I will spend this winter season in Indianapolis, but that could change, if the weather becomes too brutal after January, 2002.

SOCIAL CLUB HAS ANOTHER HIT WITH HALLOWEEN PARTY

We don't usually hear "America the Beautiful" and "God Bless America" played at Summit parties, but that was the only difference this memorable year.

On the contrary, this year's Halloween Party brought out more fun and costumes than ever before. We had a matched set of pumpkins, a gypsy fortune teller, a pair of pixies, and Linda (our great Cafe waitress" as 'Morticia', among others. We even had a pair of 'dreidels!' All this making the judge's job more difficult. The winners of the champagne being Eleanor Blumberg as the Blond Accessory Lady, loaded down with golden jewelry, and Dr. Sylvia Herz as the Gold Digger Witch.

The music and the Cafe's Great Italian Dinner supplied additional high marks to a fun evening. LONG LIVE THE SUMMIT SPIRIT!

IT'S ALL IN YOUR PERSPECTIVE

By Bob Spiewak

Look at this expensive suit,
It came missing a button.
And that fancy restaurant,
It's menu calls lamb "mutton".

And that car I bought just last week,
Is smaller than last year's.
The remodelling of my lovely home,
So bad, it brought tears.

Living in a modest home,
And driving the same old car.
Wearing clothes a few years old,
Eating at a corner bar.

Can surely bring one happiness,
Greater by far, than wealth.
Material stuff don't mean a thing,
Compared to family, friends and health.
